

Let your event soar

at THE MUSEUM OF FLIGHT

prepare your event for take-off

Whether you're planning a 14-person meeting or a 4,000-guest gala, The Museum of Flight offers the Northwest's best – and most unique – backdrop for your event. Through a combination of spectacular settings, unparalleled convenience, and unmatched expertise, we can help you create an enormously successful and memorable event for business, pleasure, and everything in between.

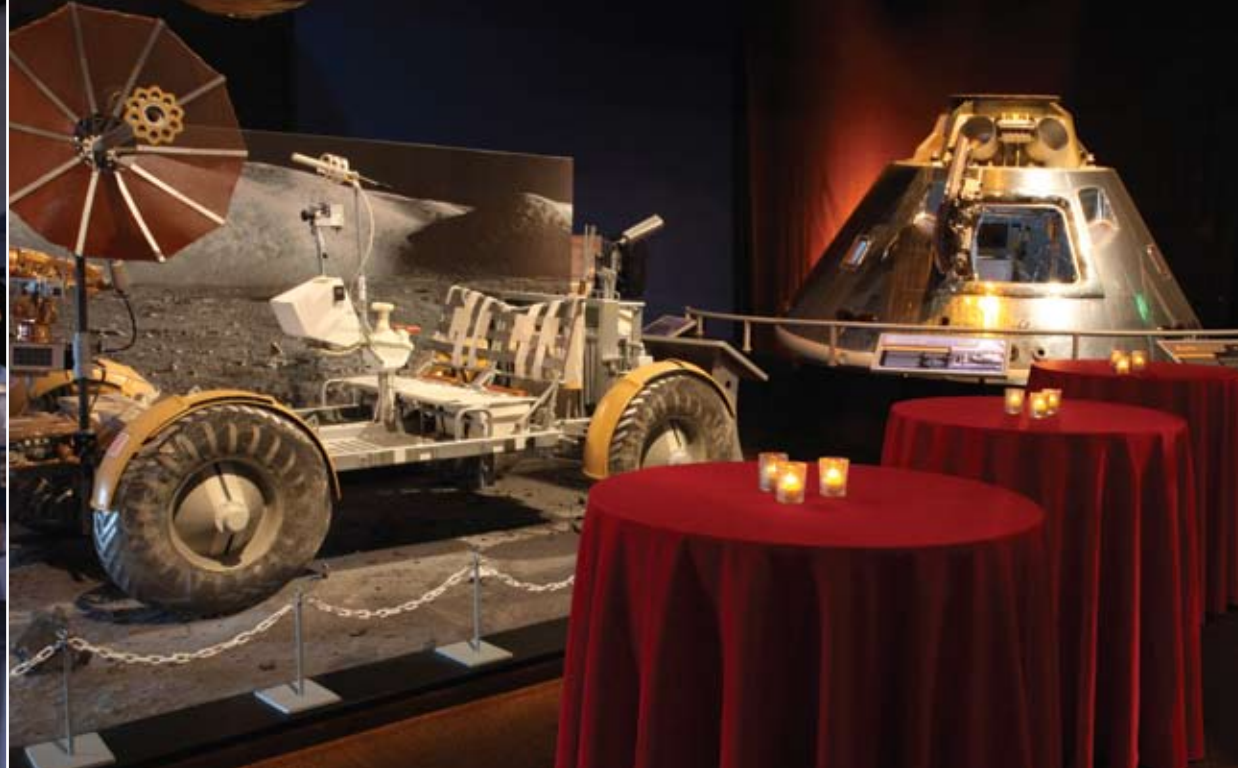

the height of elegance

The grandeur of the Great Gallery. The intimacy of the Personal Courage Wing. Sundown from the balcony of the View Lounge. No matter where you choose to stage your event, The Museum of Flight provides an ideal setting that takes your occasion to new heights. Picture your guests dining beneath the incredible wings of the Blackbird spy plane. Enjoying a cocktail as they admire the Mustang fighter. Or simply looking out the glass-ceilinged gallery to catch a glimpse of a passing B-17. No venue on Earth offers quite the same combination of awe-striking ambience and glamour.

as easy as 3... 2... 1

No matter how large your gathering, The Museum of Flight is prepared to make it easy for you and your guests. It starts with ease of access: located just off I-5, adjacent to Boeing Field, we're equally convenient to guests coming from the north, the south, or the air – and only 10 minutes from SeaTac Airport and downtown Seattle. For deliveries, we've accommodated your plans with loading docks at either end of the building. And as for parking, forget searching for paid parking downtown; we have ample free parking available year-round.

experts in our (air)field

At The Museum of Flight, you'll find a team of planners, facilities personnel, and technical professionals that will ensure that your event goes off without a hitch. It starts with our experienced event planners who can walk you through each and every detail, from the first invitation to the last guest out the door. Regardless of your request, they'll find a way to make your grandest wishes come true. Next, you'll find an outstanding facilities staff, dedicated to making sure that every podium is in place and every seat has been set. Lastly, our technical aces will meet all your audio-visual needs with state-of-the-art equipment and unprecedented expertise.

definitely not airline food

The exclusive caterer of The Museum of Flight – Catering by McCormick & Schmick’s – serves delighted diners throughout the country in more than 90 extraordinary restaurants. With a focus on fresh seafoods, aged steaks, poultry, and pasta, McCormick & Schmick’s brings its culinary mastery to guests of The Museum of Flight. Whether simple or extravagant, you’ll be able to choose a menu that perfectly complements your event – from scrumptious scallops to perfect pesto, remarkable rib-eyes to decadent desserts.

upgrade your experience

More than just a unique setting, The Museum of Flight offers one-of-a-kind additions to your event as well. Exhilarate your guests with simulator rides where they can barrel-roll a Corsair or chase down enemy fighters. Bring drama to the night with a WWII-era performance by the acting troupe of "Amazing Skies Theater." Test your teamwork in guiding the space shuttle from Mission Control in the Challenger Learning Center. Take a docent-led tour of the historic Boeing Red Barn. Or simply stand on the airstrip overlook and watch the fascinating everyday airshow of King County International Airport.

Let your event take flight

For more information about how The Museum of Flight can help you put together a meeting or celebration to remember, please call your personal planner today at 206.764.5706 or email at privateevents@museumofflight.org.

private events

at THE MUSEUM OF FLIGHT

privateevents@museumofflight.org

206.764.5706